Leading the Way

This week's program: Roanoke Valley Local Governments: Accomplishments and Plans, presented by Brian Townsend and Sherman M. Stovall, Acting City Managers & Assistant City Managers, City of Roanoke. The talk will be an overview of recent developments and future plans for Roanoke, to include latest news on the search for a City Manager.

Townsend has been Assistant City Manager for Community Development since 2007, prior to that he served as Director of Planning and Director of Economic Development. Townsend moved to Roanoke from Norfolk in 2002. He has degrees from the University of Richmond (go Spiders!) and Virginia Commonwealth University.

Townsend serves on several community boards.

Stovall has been employed by the City of Roanoke since 1994. He was appointed Assistant City Manager for Operations in November 2010. Stovall has degrees from Virginia Wesleyan College (go Marlins!) and Marshall University. He is active with New Horizons and several other community organizations.

Our condolences to club member Terry VandeLinde on the recent passing of his mother, Jean Ella Vickers VandeLinde (84). Jean passed away on Wednesday, June 21, 2017. She was a resident of Moneta. Funeral services were held on Monday at Halesford Baptist Church. Some of you may remember Terry's father Bob, who has been a presenter and guest at Kiwanis. Kiwanis Club of Roanoke First Annual Bocce Ball Tournament September 16, 2017 at Rivers Edge Park

(Times to be announced.)

Two person team cost $100. No experience needed.
Five games guaranteed.

All proceeds go to Kiwanis Roanoke River Greenway Projects

New to bocce . . . a fun family game?

The object of the sport is for a team to get as many of their balls as close to the pallino (smaller ball) as possible. The match begins with the flip of a coin between teams with the winner tossing the smaller ball on to the court.

Then, a team member rolls the first big ball (bocce ball) to get it as close to the small ball as possible. The other team follows . . . trying to get their balls closer to the smaller ball than their opponents.

When all balls have been played, one team is awarded one point for each bocce ball closer to the pallino than the opposing team. The other team scores no points.

The team that scores in one frame starts the next frame by throwing out the pallino and playing the first bocce ball. The game is won by the first team scoring 9 points. The game ends when the 9th point is scored and the other team has played all four bocce balls.

A fun day with Beer, Food Trucks & Music! Supports the Roanoke River Greenway!
